BURGHERGRAY WELCOMES NEW PARTNER GREGORY M. WESTON

April 17, 2024

NEW YORK — BurgherGray is pleased to announce that Gregory M. Weston has joined the firm as a Partner. Greg brings an exceptional pedigree and a wealth of experience, which will significantly enhance the firm’s offerings in various core practice areas.

With a distinguished career that includes senior positions at AmLaw 100 firms and in-house roles, Greg specializes in advising emerging managers and other sponsors of private equity, real estate, private credit, and venture funds on fund formation, regulatory, and transactional matters. His expertise also extends to representing institutional investors in alternative investments, and he has a proven track record in real estate finance and investments that includes complex transactions involving office, industrial, retail, and multifamily properties.

Prior to joining BurgherGray, Greg was a Partner in the New York Office of Winston & Strawn LLP. He is a respected figure in the legal and business communities, serving as General Counsel to the National Association of Investment Companies and holding board positions with the Real Estate Executive Council and Structured Finance Association. Greg’s commitment to excellence is also evident in his community service, including his role as a trustee of Democracy Prep New York Charter Schools and his involvement with The Riverside Church’s Finance Committee.

Gopal Burgher, Managing Partner of BurgherGray, expressed his enthusiasm about Greg’s arrival, stating, “we are excited to have Greg join the BG family. His exceptional pedigree and deep and varied experience, both in private practice and in-house, in the areas of investment management, real estate and finance will greatly enhance our ability to serve our clients in such disciplines. Greg’s addition further underscores the firm's continued commitment to strategic growth through the acquisition of top-tier talent."

Greg commented on his new role, "Joining BurgherGray offers an unparalleled opportunity to contribute to a firm that not only values excellence in legal practice but also prioritizes strategic growth and client success. I am eager to leverage my experience to further strengthen the firm's capabilities in its core practice areas and to contribute to its dynamic and collaborative environment."

Greg holds a J.D. from Columbia University School of Law and a B.A. from Howard University.
