

BURGHERGRAY LLP WELCOMES ACCOMPLISHED LITIGATOR JESSICA KOPAS AS PARTNER

Jessica Kopas

NEW YORK/MIAMI — (April 10, 2025) BurgherGray LLP is pleased to announce that seasoned litigator, Jessica Kopas, has joined the firm as Partner, enhancing its litigation bench. A Florida native, she will split her time between the Firm's Miami and New York offices. With over twenty years of experience in complex commercial litigation, Jessica brings an exceptionally dynamic background and skillset to BurgherGray's litigation practice, including in fiduciary litigation, business torts, banking and investment disputes, securities litigation, business disputes, class actions, complex real estate disputes, and regulatory matters.

"As we look to build out our litigation bench, Jessica's experience and skillset are a perfect fit for the current needs of the firm and its clients," said Gopal Burgher, Managing Partner. "Her impressive track record of handling complex commercial disputes across industries and subject matters, for and for sophisticated clients, aligns well with our objective of attracting top caliber talent and makes her an invaluable asset that we can immediately leverage for the benefit of our clients."

Jessica represents one of the latest in a series of notable senior-level additions to the firm over the last two years, as the firm continues to execute on its strategic growth plan. Throughout her career, she has established herself as a formidable litigator, successfully handling several high-stakes and high-profile cases, including working on Florida's largest Ponzi scheme case involving fraudulent structured settlements, as well as on the widely publicized "missing millionaire" case. Among Jessica's other notable achievements are serving as co-lead counsel in a complex trade secrets case that resulted in one of Florida's top ten verdicts and securing a multimillion-dollar verdict in a fiduciary litigation case.

"I'm thrilled to join BurgherGray and contribute to the firm's growing litigation practice," said Jessica. "The firm's culture, values and commitment to client service align perfectly with my personal values and approach to legal practice. I look forward to leveraging my experience to benefit the firm's diverse client base."
